Daniel kills the dragon that the king of Babylon considers a god

24 "Look!" said the king to Daniel, "you cannot deny that this is a living god, so adore it."

25 But Daniel answered, "I adore the Lord, my God, for he is the living God.

26 Give me permission, O king, and I will kill this dragon without sword or club." "I give you permission," the king said.

27 Then Daniel took some pitch, fat, and hair; these he boiled together and made into cakes. He put them into the mouth of the dragon, and when the dragon ate them, he burst asunder. "This," he said, "is what you worshiped."
